KAM/ELB/JYB/Year 6/WWII Day

2nd November 2022

Dear Year 6 Parents and Carers

Wednesday 7th December is World War 2 Day in Year 6! Calling all evacuees!

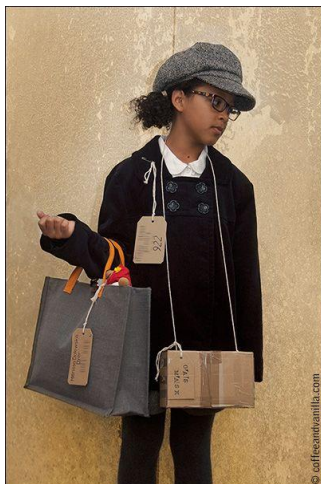

The day will consist of a range of fun, WWII related activities to enrich the children's understanding of this term's topic. To help immerse the children in the topic, we are asking pupils to come to school dressed as evacuees. When they arrive on the day, please can they enter school via the school hall side door. From here, they will be sorted into groups and sent off to the countryside with a new teacher, to take part in a day of WWII learning.

The outfit can be adapted from school uniform. Please do not feel you have to buy something. Your child will be sent home with an evacuee name tag the evening before for you to fill in and tie onto them when they come to school.

Perfect things to wear, which you probably already have:

- School shoes (rather than trainers)
- School skirts, shorts or trousers
- Blouses or shirts
- Knitted jumpers or cardigans (rather than hoodies or sweatshirts)
- Flat caps
- Berets
- Baker boy caps
- Waistcoats or tank tops
- Blazer

Here are some costume ideas:
